

Easter 2017

Dear brothers,

«Why search among the dead the one who is alive?» (Lk 24:5) is the question of the angel to the women, who early in the morning went to the tomb of Jesus.

This warning, which is also addressed to us, would help us to get out of our closed spaces and sadness and would lead us to open the horizons of joy and hope, that hope which encourages us to proclaim the Gospel to the men and women of today, in the culture of communication.

Happy Feast of the Lord's Resurrection!

Faternally,

FR. VALDIR JOSÉ DE CASTRO
Superior General

