have seen a great light. A light has dawned upon those who lived in the land as dark as death» (Is 9:1)*

CHRISTMAS 2017

The Feast of Christmas reminds us that Jesus, the expected Messiah, is in our midst as a light that shines in the darkness. Let us allow ourselves to be illuminated by his Word and be in the world as witnesses of love, mercy, justice and peace with different languages of communication

A very special greeting to all the members of the Association of Pauline Cooperators in this Centenary year of its foundation. Knowing the good news of Jesus – that reveals in Bethlehem his tenderness in the weakness of a child – can help us to persevere with courage in our commitment «to wake up the world with the light of the Gospel», in the footsteps of St Paul and of Blessed James Alberione.

I wish you all a very Happy Christmas and a New Year with renewed apostolic fervour!

Faternally,

FR VALDIR JOSÉ DE CASTRO
Superior General
